Re: Potential Representation

Dear

Thank you for contacting our office concerning your potential legal action. Unfortunately, we regret to inform you we are unable to accept your case due to our current caseload.

I respectfully suggest that you contact the Florida Bar at 651 East Jefferson Street, Tallahassee, Florida 32399, or you may call them at (850) 561-5600, and they can refer you to an attorney who may be able to assist you in this matter.

In addition, you must determine how long you have to file suit. There are statutes of limitations applicable to every cause of action and your lawsuit must be filed within that time. I would advise you to ask either the Florida Bar or the attorney who actually handles your case what the statute of limitations is. This is a question that must be answered as soon as possible.

We appreciate your interest in our firm and regret that we are unable to accept your case. Should you have need of further legal assistance on other matters in the future, please do not hesitate to give me a call.

Sincerely,

/s/ Ryan J. Andrews
